Last Rotary Meeting

With the District Governor Jeff and his wife Jenny Neale visiting, and other guests, including Craig Dowling and his wife Kiki from Loxton, we enjoyed a lively meeting with good discussion.

The District Governor brought a message from the International President Shekhar Mehta. He has invited each member of the club to bring a potential member to the club with his catch phrase, 'Each One, Bring One'

To help with this we need to look for Projects to do, to attract members as this has the potential to grow our club. As we develop relationships with the participants and show them how we serve our community this is an opportunity to invite them to do so as well.

Another key to building membership is to use our Vocational Service as our members can have them share their skills with other members. Rotary can help people to do community service in their own community.

Jenny Neale's project is AllKids – It provides education to disadvantaged children in Cambodia. Jenny's aim is to provide this same opportunity to Prek Trabaek REAM Commune students. Besides AllKids learning, there are also AllKids Day Care Centres which allow parents to find work and support themselves and their children. Since 2012 AllKids has provided education to 1500 disadvantaged children in Cambodia.

Apologies came from Kerry Woolston, Tony Smith and Lisanne Jarvis.
