Business to hand

- End Polio Now Utility availability pending pickup from Port Lincoln over the Easter Long Weekend. Bruce Richardson has the Raffle Tickets
- Our next Club Meeting will be held on Monday 28th February at the Hotel with a speaker – Kira Watts talking on NYSF program
- Yvette Webber is busy organizing Neil Webbers Rotary Service History for the Rotary Club of Berri.
- On the 17th Feb SA Service Clubs held a meeting via Zoom
- Our Covid Safe Plan includes using a QR Code, Times are changing due to vaccinations, our plan may need to line up with the changes
- A letter was received from a Loxton resident requesting financial support for a cancer patient to be supported. It was decided that we refer the request to the Loxton club the opportunity to support a fellow Loxton resident.
- We will receive a new Club Banner under the renewal of Banner Scheme.
- An amount of $1,000 less the cost of the new Club Banner, has been allocated by the District to update the club image and the club will need to discuss and decide what those funds are to be spent on such as new shirts, signage etc.
- The second part of the District grant program is for a proposal for Solar Panels to be placed on the Men's shed to the value of $4000. The proposal needs to be put together by our Secretary and for the Board to discuss.
- President Peter has made progress with developments on his plan to hold a Car Boot Sale on No. 2 Oval Berri sometime in the next Rotary Year. He has been able to line up some vendors for the day, with plans it will go ahead.
