Last Rotary Meeting

Last meeting, we welcomed visiting Rotarian, Dini Whyte from Morphett Vale Club. Dini shared her experience with her involvement in Rotary where she said that Noarlunga East and Noarlunga merged in 2018 and became the Morphett Vale Club.

Dini was the AG for the area, but not any longer, and she shared that Yankalilla club is a very small club of 5 members, so Berri Club is not doing so bad after all. The Morphett Vale Clubs main fundraiser is providing the sausage sizzle at Bunning which brings them a total of $1,000 average each session. One other fundraiser is using Blue and Yellow stripe rope which only gets used once, due to purpose, and this rope is cut into 10m lengths and sold. Very popular product.

One other fundraiser is holding a Community Raffle where community Groups sell the Tickets, and the community group receives the proceeds of the sales of tickets made by them. E.g. 10 Books for $200. Each ticket is $2.00. Prizes consist of 1st Accommodation 2nd Bunnings Voucher 3rd Chocolates etc through to 10 prizes in all. The Morphett Vale Club meets at SA Football Club.
