Last Rotary Meeting

Matters discussed at the meeting included:

- the opening of the Cliff Top Walk by the Waikerie club on Thursday 21 September.
- Combined Services Club meeting speaker is Julie Ahrens of Berri Our Town.
- From the Presidents meeting
 - a suggestion that a Peace Pole be erected at the Loveday Internment Camp.
 - The Riverland clubs would vote to be classified as Geographical for Regionalisation, and second category of Youth programs.
 - Information on the Rotary Says NO to Domestic Violence program is forthcoming.
 - RYLA and RYPEN registration process is causing confusion and affecting the numbers attending these camps. The District is being asked to investigate this process.
 - Conference registrations during September are entered into the draw for a refund of the Cocktail evening registration.

What great news: Hugo Kregar who was our Finalist for SA Training Awards Apprentice, was announced as the winner of the SA Apprentice of the year 2023 at the SATA awards dinner held last night - see website for full details
